

GREG PROTHMAN, PRESIDENT

With more than 20 years experience in various functions of government and the public sector, Greg Prothman brings a solid and grounded perspective to best serve his clients. Greg offers a unique combination of in-depth, firsthand city management experience combined with a thorough understanding of local government and public sector employment. Early on he served as a Renton Police Officer before making the move to Assistant City Manager for the City of Des Moines, WA, and then to City Manager, also for the City of Des Moines. Greg's 12 year tenure in city management benefits his clients due to his firsthand experience and the ability to thoroughly understand the client's needs. He's walked in their shoes – from police officer to top management. Noted as one of the region's leading progressive municipal managers, Greg brings a creative and thorough understanding of all facets of municipal administration.

As President of Prothman, Greg is uniquely positioned, through his extensive public sector and executive search background, to offer services in municipal consulting, interim placement and executive recruitment. He has conducted over 150 executive searches, successfully placing city managers, finance directors, IT managers, police and fire chiefs, public works and community development directors and many other positions. He has also formed and managed start-up teams for five newly incorporated cities, including the City of Spokane Valley, WA, (pop.82,000), the second largest incorporation of its kind in the US.

A Seattle native, Greg completed his BA at Western Washington University and received his Master of Public Administration degree from the University of Washington.
