WHY APPLY?

Located in the heart of the beautiful central Oregon Coast, Lincoln County is home to spectacular natural beauty, a thriving arts community, and a growing ocean-based economy.

From Cascade Head at the north to Cape Perpetua at the south, Lincoln County boasts more than 40 federal, state, and local parks, along with two wilderness areas, providing an abundance of recreational opportunities for camping, fishing, hiking, beachcombing, whale watching and more. Several community theatres and many art galleries are scattered throughout the County with plenty to keep cultural fans busy. One of the largest fishing fleets on the west coast is located in Newport which, along with tourism, creates a healthy economy. When you live in Lincoln County, you will feel like you're on vacation every weekend. Working for Lincoln County will offer you the chance to join a progressive, dynamic team led by a supportive Board of Commissioners who cares about its employees.

THE COMMUNITY

Lincoln County has a population of 48,820 people which can blossom to over 100,000 at the height of the tourist season. The County covers roughly 992 square miles with approximately 54 miles of ocean beaches. There are seven incorporated cities within the county borders, including Lincoln City, Depoe Bay, Siletz, Toledo, Newport, Waldport and Yachats, each with its own distinct personality. The cities give the County a small-town feel, yet the urban centers of Portland, Eugene and Corvallis are not far away.

Newport is the County seat and the location of Yaquina Bay where the ocean industry is centered. The bay and surrounding areas are home to the large commercial and recreational fishing fleet, the Coast Guard, NOAA, OSU Hatfield Marine Science Center, Newport Aquarium, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife, and the new OMSI Day Camp. Oregon Coast Community College is also located here with branches in Waldport and Lincoln City. Many festivals take place in Lincoln County throughout the year including the Wine and Seafood Festival, Celtic Festival, Yachats Mushroom Festival, Toledo Summer Festival, Siletz Pow Wow, Lincoln City Kite Festival, Depoe Bay Salmon Bake, the Lincoln County Fair and more.

All these elements, along with an extensive health care system, a diverse and supportive school district, and excellent emergency preparedness services, make Lincoln County a wonderful and unique place to live.

THE COUNTY

Lincoln County is governed by a three-member, nonpartisan Board of County Commissioners serving four-year staggered terms. The County employs 465 FTEs and has a 2020-2021 adopted budget of 110 million, including a general fund of 47 million. County departments include: County Administrator, Legal Counsel, Emergency Management, Fairgrounds, Finance & Accounting, Health & Human Services, Juvenile, Parks, Parole & Probation, Personnel, Planning & Development, Public Works, Surveyor's Office, Transit, and Veteran Services. Elected County positions include the Assessor, District Attorney, County Clerk, Sheriff, and Treasurer. The County has a strong management team (M-Team) made up of elected officials and department directors that work closely together with the Human Resources Director.

THE DEPARTMENT AND POSITION

Serving at the pleasure of the Board of Commissioners, the County Administrator is responsible for implementing BOC policy, and for planning, organizing, directing and controlling the activities and operations of Lincoln County government. The County Administrator also develops policy recommendations for BOC action and provides highly responsible and complex administrative support to the BOC. Working under the general direction of the Board of Commissioners, Lincoln County's Administrator supervises non-elected department directors. OPPORTUNITIES & CHALLENGES

Balancing Budget and Enhancing Services

While enhancing County services is a great priority for the County, the County Administrator must take into consideration the associated costs and maintain a balanced budget, while providing the best services possible. It is anticipated that the County Administrator will have a major role in the budget process.

Change in Government Structure

The County's current County Counsel has assumed general administrative duties over the course of his 35-year tenure with the County. This is a unique opportunity for a skilled public manager to play a key role in shaping new processes, programs and organizational structure as the County transitions to a full time County Administrator. The role of the County Administrator will be to lead the organizations strategic planning and strategic thinking efforts, coordinate the work of the various department directors and elected officials, and maintain a collegial and team-oriented workplace. The County Administrator also serves in various other management roles, including serving as County Fair Manager, managing the County's economic development program, and managing capital projects.

Regulation of Short-Term Rentals

Lincoln County requires a license to operate a Short-Term Rental (STR). The County strives to balance tourism with livability for its residents. The regulation of vacation rentals will continue to be a challenge.

Multiple Agency Coordination

To execute the County's goals, the County works closely with various local and regional governmental agencies. The County has excellent working relationships with other units of government, including the cities, and the County Administrator will play a leading role in assuring that these relationships are maintained and strengthened.
