WHY APPLY?

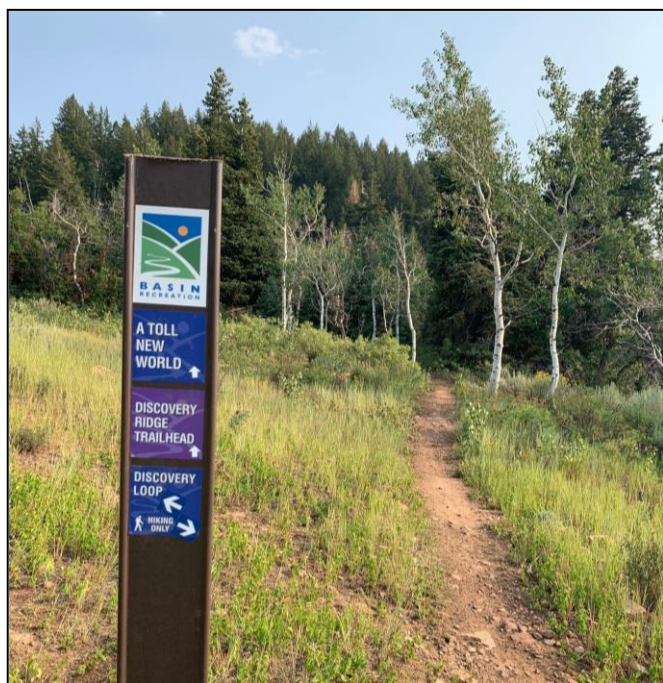

Established in 1986, Basin Recreation was created with a mission to “enhance life” by “connecting the community through recreation.” Basin Recreation is located 24 miles south-east of Salt Lake City in Park City, Utah. With over 2,300 acres of open space and 175 miles of trails there are plenty of activities for everyone to enjoy. From snowshoeing, sleigh rides and skiing in the winter to mountain biking, rafting and golf in the warmer months, this mountainous area will not disappoint. It has earned a reputation of a recreational paradise and a very desirable place to live.

The amazing beauty of the rugged mountains surrounding the Park City area is complemented by over 100 restaurants and bars, open air concert venues, numerous spas and health clubs, theatres, art galleries, and a series of world-class events and festivals, including the prestigious Sundance Film Festival.

Basin Recreation offers the right candidate a chance to work in a high-performance team-structured organization, in a region that takes pride in its sustainability, spectacular natural beauty, and way of life.

THE COMMUNITY

Basin Recreation, a Special Service District created by Summit County, is located in the unincorporated area of Park City, Utah. The Basin District has a population of approximately 26,000 people. While the area started as farming and mining communities, the mining industry has been phased out, being replaced by recreation and tourism.

Conveniently located approximately 30 miles from the Salt Lake City International Airport, the area is home to many residential neighborhoods and retail stores. The area boasts its proximity to a year-round resort town that caters to people seeking recreation and a superior quality of life. The community features two world-class ski areas, several golf courses, hiking and mountain biking trails, and nearby reservoirs for boating and fishing.

Park City has a permanent population of about 8,500 residents and draws in over three million visitors annually. In 2002, Park City was a venue for the Winter Olympic Games, in 2008 it was chosen by Forbes Traveler Magazine among one of the 20 'prettiest towns' in the US, and in 2013 it was chosen as the Outside Magazine Best Town Ever.

The area offers an urban lifestyle in a rural setting and takes pride in its highly educated and affluent population. The Basin District is a part of the outstanding Park City School District, which offers one high school, two middle schools, and four elementary schools, with nearly 5,000 students enrolled.

THE DISTRICT

Established in 1986 to create recreational opportunities in western Summit County, Basin Recreation owns and manages 2,300 acres of open space, has built and/or maintains 175 miles of trails and works with Summit County and state and local organizations on planning and conservation issues. Basin Recreation also operates an 87,000 square foot indoor field house/recreation center (The Fieldhouse) that serves over 265,000 patrons a year. Indoor activities provided in The Fieldhouse include fitness classes, weight room, running track, cardio machines, full size gym, golf simulator, indoor batting/golf cages, soccer, flag football, and a variety of other youth and adult sports. Additionally, there are several outdoor park facilities, which include playgrounds, bike parks, groomed cross-country trails, hiking trails, sports fields, tennis courts, community areas and dog parks.

Finally, the District manages popular recreation programs, camps and community events that have grown without pause over the last decade to serve the residents in the area. Basin Recreation’s current operating budget is $9,377,931.00 and has in place capital project/replacement budgets of $28,539,678. The District employs 38 full time employees and up to an additional 140 part-time and seasonal employees during peak times.
